OCAL BRIEFS-

He fell yesterday from early morn till dewey eve, a long, long winter's day he fell.

Several day-boaders can find accommodation by applying at P. O. Box 436. See notice. The bad weather is retarding progress upon the various new buildings now being erected in this city. We almost completely "slipped up" yesterday in the search for items, as our column this morning will show. The bible says "the wicked stand in slippery places." We don't think there wery many wicked persons on the streets yesterday.

The Star Ammoniated Soluible Phosphate, so highly spoken of, is for sale by Messrs. A. C. Sanders & Co. See their advertisement on this

The train over the North Carolina road coming East was detained yesterday morning from some cause, reaching here some three hours be hind time. One of the leading business men of this city will this morning take unto himself one of the fair daughters of Raleigh. The eouple will make a bridal trip through the North.

Mr. Blake, residing near the Central depot in this city, has recently received from Texas a small size aligator. His aligatorship is alive and seems to be doing well. Convenient and comfortable rooms for members of the Legislature can be found at Mrs. Booker's boarding house, on Wilmington street, only a half-square distant from the Capi-

An application will be made to the present General Assembly for an amendment to the charter of the N. C. Mutual Home Insurance Company. See notice in another We learn the Grand Jury was yesterday engaged in examining into the recent "lottery" or "gift" gamb-ling that was had on Wilmington street. The object, we believe, is to arraign those who bet at the game. The Legislature will re-assemble in this city on Monday next. We suppose one of the first objects of that body will be the consideration of the Convention bills which were introduced before the adjournment We had the pleasure of seeing in our office last evening Senator Kerr of Sampson, who is at present in at tendance upon the Supreme Court. He represents Sampson county as being fully in favor of the calling of a Convention. The Sea Fowl and Bradley's Superphosphate Fertilizer, advertised by G. T. Stronach, Bros. & Company, have much popularity in this section. Mr. Bradley has himself won much popularity in the South by his fair dealing with the general public. Our poetical machine becoming enthused over the late outrages in Louisiana, yesterday let fly the following touching and truthful stanza:

Na'ure made but one such mar, Then h r mould she busted; Bis name it was Phil. Sheridan, And she became disgusted.

Gill, the grocer, on Monday sus-tained the loss of a barrel of whiskey. He was engaged in hoisting it, when the rope became disarranged and the barrel fell to the floor and was instantly relieved of its contents, the gutter in front of the store becoming for the time being a sea of whiskey.

Col. Step en D. Pool, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, will this week move his family to this city from Newbern, with a view of making Raleigh his home in the future. We have plenty of room for such additions to the population of our city. He adds ten to the census of Raleigh.

Quite a number of our young gentry were yesterday engaged in skating on our sidewalks, the ice being sufficiently thick and strong to admit of the use of skates. Several falls attended this sport, however, as the youths could not handle themselves with the same care they could on a smooth pond.

Many were the falls sustained by edestrains upon our streets yesterday, and many was the laugh oc-casioned thereby. There is no con-dition in which a man can be placed that he can be made to feel cheaper than when he is endeavoring to rise from a slippery pavement amidst the jeers of the by standers. Subscribers finding this notice marked are apprised that their term of subscription will expire within two weeks. All renewals must be compt.

THE CONFERENCE ON THE PUBLIC DEBT TO BE HELD ON THURSDAY.— Capt. Waring, the Chairman of the Legislative Committee on the Public Legislative Committee on the Public Debt of the State, arrived in this city yesterday morning and will remain here during the week in order to be with the Committee in the confer ence with the creditors of the State to-morrow and Friday. He informs us that he has every assurance that the creditors of the State will be largely represented on this occasion, as he has received letters from large numbers of them to this effect. We sincerely trust that good results may follow from this conference, and that the Legislature may be enabled to do something whereby the State may be relieved of the discredit that now attaches to her financially.

ONE INCIDENT ONLY .- Yesterday morning an aged Senegambian walk-ing up Hillsboro street, with a roll of leather on his shoulders, feeling the effects of a little benzine he ha swallowed "to keep his in'ards warm," essayed to use his legs as in his days of youth. He attempted to slide along the pavement in front of the residence of one of our popular physicians, when his feet slipped from under him and his head made a perceptible indenture in the icy ide walk. A little cuss of a negr playing upon the ice near by, could not refrain from a guffaw, and had the impertinence to ask his aged senior if he was good at standing on his head. When the old man got up the little fellow was nowhere to be

AN IMPORTANT CASE .- Mr. G. T. Mockridge, of Philadelphia, has re-cently entered in the Secretary's office of this State 175,000 acres of land located in Mitchell and McDowell counties. The Secretary has declin-ed issuing grants for the same, from the fact that Mr. Mockridge is not a resident of the State and has not signified his intention of becoming such A case has been made up, and the matter is to be heard before Judge Watts at Chambers this week, the Attorney-General and Messra. Smith & Strong appearing for the State and Messrs. Battle & Sons for Mr. Mockridge. It is one of much importance as it will decide the question of the right of others than North Carolinians to enter the public lands of the

CASUALTIES FROM THE SLEET OF YESTERDAY.—We heard of several accidents yesterday of a minor character, but two of a more serious and even fatal character. Mrs. Bell, the even latal character. Mrs. Bell, the mother of Hilliard Bell, gunsmith, in this city, slipped yesterday morning and fell and broke her thigh. We understand her injuries may possibly prove serious. A negro boy at Cary during the morning, while carrying a stick of wood on his shoulder, fell and broke his neck. He was the son of a negro school teacher at Carey.

MISCEGANATION.—We learn that some time in July last a negro man named Stanford Morgan married a white woman named Emily Evans, both residing in the romantic town of Rhamkatte a short distance west of this city, and have since lived to-gether in that connection. We call upon the "Mayor of Rhamkatte" to preserve better morals in his domin-

THE GREENSBORO GIFT CONCERT. Elsewhere will be found the notice of the final postponement of the Grand Gift Concert, which is to be had in Greensboro for the purpose of erecting an Odd Fellows' Hall in that city. It will now positively take place on the 17th of March. See advertisement.

The 1st quarterly meeting of Edenton Street Methodist Episcopal church, South, of this city, for the present Conference year, was held on Sunday last. The Presiding Elder of the Raleigh District, Rev. Junius P. Moore was present and occupied the pulpit of Edenton street church on Sunday morning, delivering a discourse of much ability. This is Mr. Moore's first year as Presiding Elder of the Raleigh District, and thus far has rendered efficient service and is gaining popularity.

The Superior Court yesterday was again engaged throughout the day in hearing the evidence in the case of the negro may that recently broke into the store of Mr. Jewell, in this county. The jury have been occupants of the Court room two nights. Arguments in the case will be commenced to-day and doubtless the case conclu-

Senator Chandler is not yet relected, and, so far as the action of the Republican caucus which nominated him the other night goes, he is not very likly to be. There are 71 Republicans in the Michigan Legislature, and it requires 67 votes to elect a Senator. After four days of incessant work, in which every Federal office-holder in the State "con-centrated himself" upon the State House, Mr. Chandler was able by threats, promises, and other influ-ences to get only 59 Republicans to sign a call for a caucus, and only 52 of these attented. The anti-Chandler papers say he has put forth his entire strength, and that he cannot increase it any between now and the 19th inst., when the balloting will

There was a man in Brooklyn who had never heard of the Tilton-Beechl er case. Big city, Brooklyn.

Cora \tanley-The Old Love Story Set with \text{\text{Names}}-The Funeral of an \text{\text{\text{ctress}}}.

She turned her face to the wall and simply said "I want to die;" and as she spoke those words her life came she spoke those words her life came to an end. Her career from the moment when as Therese Theraud she captivated young Paris, until her death on Friday in New York, under the name of Cora Stanley, is public property, On one occasion alone did she nearly betray her incognito. One of her friends heard her sing "Je l'aime! Je l'aime! O Bretagne." He said. "Why. Therese, you must be a said, "Why, Therese, you must be a Breton." Her eyes filled with tears, and she hastily left the saloon. When he sought her he found that she was crying bitterly, and she sai!: "Dear friend, never speak to me in that way again." that way again; you make me so sad." She was compelled to leave Paris, and decided to make her home on this continent. Before her departure she gave to her friends and companions in Paris a grand farewell banquet, at which she bade them farewell. She left France with 800,-000 francs, $160,000. The next heard of her was at Havana, where she lived in magnificent style, IL Havana a young and handsome actor, named Gomez, fell deeply in love with her. She loved him with as much sincerity. One night, after the performance in the Tacon theatre, the performance in the Tacon theatre, where he was playing, Gomez went with Therese to her residence, and proposed to marry her. At first she laughed at him, but seeing that he meaut what he said, she reasoned with him, and said that if she married him his prospects in life would be ruined, and she loved him too dearly to do that. The infatuated young man went to his hotel and blew out his brains. He left a note addressed to Therese, saying that he addressed to Therese, saying that he found life unendurable without her, and that he would not forget her, even in death. When the news of his suicide was broken to her she was seized with brain fever, and for some weeks was at the door of death. She recovered to find herself almost a

During her illness her maid had stolen all her jewelry and fled to the mountains with another servant. She then sold her house in Hayana, came to this city, and assumed the name of Cora Stanley. She dispensed charity with no niggard hand, and he poor starving never went away hungry from her door. To the charita ble societies she gave largely, and to the shame of the officers of one be it said that when she needed aid at their hands she found it not. At last her star began to set. Consumption seized upon her. The most eminent hysicians in the city could not avert her death. For three years she lin-gered on. Two years ago she found her wealth gone, and was compelled to take a room in an obscure French hotel. She died in decent poverty.

Political Draw Poker. If the captain of a Mississippi steamboat, overlooking the game known as Draw Poker, upon which the American Minister to the Court of St. James has lately published a lively and enteriaining essay, should be appealed to by a passenger upon whom a gambler had just drawn four aces from his sleeve, and should re-ply that he did not want to be bothered with such things, there might arise a suspicion as to his fitness for his place. If he seemed on intimate terms with the gambler, and fre-quently winked at him in the progress of the game, there might be suspicion that he was not wholly disinterested. The suspicion would be likely to grow, if upon another plain cheat he compelled the stranger to give up the stakes. But if after the bets were made on another deal, the gambler should deliberately turn over the whole pack and pick out four aces, while the captain called in the deck hands to stand over the passenger with clubs, while the gam-bler raked down the money, there would be no further doubt of collu-

The passengers on another boat we know of have pretty much made up their minds that Capt. Grant is not an entirely distinterested spectator of the game between gambler Kellogg and Louisiana, and there is beginning to be some indignation manifested at it. But there's great wisdom and wonderful discretion in the American Congress. It stands between the passengers and the Cap-tain and says, "Oh let us be calm, gentlemen. There has undoubtedly been cheating around the board, and the gambler has got the money. Bu let's settle it peaceably. What we propose is that you—let him keep what he's got and have a new deal." They have not got so far yet as to name the dealer. That will probaby be left to Capt. Grant. And he's honest. Oh yes. Our Minister to England ought to write another essay on Draw Poker as played by politicians with State treasuries for stakes.—N. Y. Tribune.

SPEECH OF GENERAL GORDON, OF GEORGIA.—The Washington Even-ing Mail publishes entire the late speech of General Gordon in defence of the Southern character, during the pending in the Senate of the Louisi ana question. Referring to this eech editorially, the Mail says: "Senator Gordon, of Georgia, has by a brilliant speech, lifted himself to the first rank of orators and deba ters in the American Senate. His impassioned, but at the same time argumentative, speech, which we print to-day, made a profound impresion upon the Senate, and will make a like impression upon the country. Gen. Gordon's manner of delivery is spoken of on all sides as being excep-tionally admirable. His bearing is graceful and his presence command-ing. He has the elements that go to make up the great orator. He seems a worthy successor to the acrom-plished Benjamin, of Louisiana."

brothers in Louisiana.

If Congress does not heed this cry, and order the army out of the South, it is morally certain that the people will consider the advisableness of utterly abolishing the army, so as to to deprive an ignorant and lawless President of that means of overthrowing constitutional government. throwing constitutional government.
—N. Y. Sun.

The Alabama investigation, like that in Louisiana, promises to result in the utter failure of the attempt 10 prove that the Conservatives resorted to intimidation to carry the Fall election.—Tribune.

Another prominent Republican journal raises its protest against the Administration's conduct of the Louisiana business. The Boston Advertuer, which at first was inclined to take the Kallers side of the core to take the Kellogg side of the case, now says the breaking up of the Legislature by Federal troops was an act of high-handed tyranny, and adda: "For years the great State of Louisiana, whose people have as good a right to be left alone to manage their own affairs as the people of Massachusetts, has been ruled not by is wen citizens, but by two carpetis on citizens, but by two carpet-baggers, holding Federal office, and having the adroitness to enlist all the power of the Government upon their side in the inevitable confusion which they provoked. Whenever the elections have not been carried the elections have not been carried in their favor, they have overthrown the returns by some jugglery like Judge Durell's midnight order, or the manipulations of a Returning Board; and, when that has not succeeded, orders from Washington have re-enforced them, and the people have had no alternative but to protest and bide their time. Under such a state of things it is not becoming to state of things it is not becoming to be silent. This is the time when the reice of the Republican States should Having demonstrated by his banditti dispatch the calmness and good jndgment with which he could describe affairs of which he pro personal knowledge, Gen. Sheridan now undertakes the part of a histo-rian, and gives a long account of things of which he has no knowledge, save such as the Kellogg party have abundantly supplied him. Those who regarded the banditti dispatch as a good specimen of fair re-porting will now be ready to accept Gen, Sheridan as a historian. Others will prefer to depend on the dispatches which they received before Gen. Sheridan arrived.—N. Y. Tri-of veracity with Bishop WILMER. We have somewhere heard of diminutive male specimen of the bovine species whose pride provoked him into a personal rencontre with a railroad engine in full speed; and while we admired his courage, we must admit that we never did have any respect for his judgment.

ALLUDING to SHERIDAN'S infamous dispatch, in which he stated that he had been threatened with assasination because he had dared to tell the truth concerning affairs in Louisiana, the Wilmington Journal naively remarks: "If SHERIDAN shall ever be killed for telling the truth, it will be surely one of the most unjustifiable homicides ever committed."

Mr. W. F. Avery, late of the Piedmont Press, has announced himself a member of the editorial staff of the Charlotte Observer. Says he: "It is hardly necessary to state that my accession will occasion no change in the political complexion of this paper. I make no rash promises, but the old Arabic motto: "Als ik kan -I'll do the best I can "-shall be

"OUR LIVING AND OUR DEAD."

The January number of this monthly magazine is upon our table. In addition to its usual interesting reading matter, it contains the first chapter of a story entitled "A Summer Idyl," by Christian Reid, which we have already referred to in these columns. It fully sustains the character of this North Carolina authoress, and will add much to the interest of the magazine. We also find in this number the first of a serial story by Mrs. CICERO W. HARare, of Wilmington, formerly of Granville and well known in our midst. The story is founded in Granville county, and while Mrs. HARRIS will undoubtedly please tho general reader, her writings will be of peculiar interest to her many friends throughout the State.

Our Living and Our Dead is published monthly by Colonel S. D. Poor, at $3 per annum. It should be in every household in the State.

THE MECKLENBURG CENTEN-

The people of the county of Mecklenburg assembled in public meeting, on the 5th inst., to take the initiatory steps towards the proper celebration of the Mecklenburg Declaration of May 20th, 1875. A purpose to have the celebration. and to make it, in all respects, worthy of the fact commemorated, was avowed; and committees were appointed to consider and report plans for the celebration to a mass meeting of the people of the whole State, to be holden in Charlotte on the 4th of February next.

We are glad to see the good people of old Mecklenburg moving in this matter. Theirs is a heritage of no ordinary glory; and especially since the act of their forefathers, in declaring independence of the British crown has been questioned, is it proper that steps should be taken to establish its authenticity and give it proper celebration. Mecklenburg is primorily interested, but North Carolina has also an abiding interest in that act of her early history; and we urge our readers to give the proposed celebration all possible encouragement and assis-

Secretaries Fish and Bristow and Postmaster General Jewell, rumor says, are anxious to be excepted from the "all of us" mentioned in BELKNAP's dispatch to Sheridan, approving his conduct in Louisiana. We have all along thought that the sudden, violent rousing of the indignation of the people would "give pause" to some of the members of the Cabinet, and lead them to disclaim any responsibility for the outrage. If GRANT and his adherents were not the victims of that madness, which the gods are said to inflict on those they would destroy, they too would hear in the mutterings of the people the rising of a storm which shall sweep them from public sta-

THE MANAGER of the News desires to state, in justice to himself and its Editor, Major DUNHAM, that the latter has been confined to his room for the last ten days by violent inflammation of his wounded limb. He is altogether unable to walk without the aid of crutches; and, with them, does so with great pain. Notwithstanding his suffering he has made his usual contributions to the editorial columns of the paper and hopes to continue to do so.

He has not been able, however, because of the distance of his home from the office, to correct the proofs, which will account for the errors, typographical and other, that have occurred. We hope, in view of the difficulties under which we labor, that the readers of the News will pardon them.

In the light of the events of later days, Grant's recommendation that Louisiana shall participate in the Centennial Celebration of the Declaration of American Independence, at Philadelphia, on the 4th day of July, 1876, becomes a piece of the hugest sarcasm on record. We venture to suggest to the citizens of the Pelican State that they put on exhibition copies of GRANT's order to Sheridan, directing him to go to New Orleans and assume command, and the subsequent orders and telegrams of that doughty warrior. An historical painting representing the expulsion of the legally elected members of the Louisiana Legislature.ejected from the council nalls of the State by bayonets in the hands of Federal soldiery, commanded by a Federal officer, would form a fit companion piece.

MAGNOLIA, N. C. DEAR NEWS:-You will observe we are with (I suppose I can call him so) brother Stallings, of the Duplin Record; yes. sir, we are now writing on the table Editorial. I dropped in, found the Editor was out. So we concluded to pitch in and write you "a few lines"-just now a knock was given at the door, "come in," we yelled; in walked a burly looking individual, and says, "Does you want to buy any li'tard?" We looked at him a moment, and asked him what be asked for it and if he would take pay in subscring to the paper. He asked if we were the Editor, and as we were not in reach of our orange —, and not knowing how mad these people could get before they would be compelled to fight, we told him the Editor was out; he left. We ordon's Great Speech.

Yesterday we published an exten-ded synopsis of Senator Gordon's speech in the United States Senate on the Thurman resolutions. The whole country, North as well as South, owes this eloquent and bold defender of Southern honor, a deep lebt of gratitude for the tone and temper with which he handled the exasperating matters now under conderation in the Senate. Fearlessly and unspairingly denouncing our persecutors and slanderers, he did not or an instant lose sight of the deep yearning of the people of the whole country for reconciliation and lasting respect, toleration and histing peace, upon the platform of mutual respect, toleration and honor.

Rising far above those who attacked his people, he declined to enter into a war of recrimination as to the past. He may have followed another flag, as Senator Edmunds said, but those who read the utter-ances of the two Senators may well loubt whether the "Chevalier Bayard, of the army of Northern Vir-ginia," is not a truer friend to the whole country and the traditions of the men of Bunker Hill, than the Senator from Vermont. The one with a heart full of good will" to all, desires to "unite and build up our all, desires to "unite and build up our common country." The other, steeped in the venom of the past, would overthrow the country to gratify hate of a section and bring about the triumph of a party. In behalf of the people of Alauma and the whole South, we thank Senator Gordon.—Montgomery Advertiser.

Messrs, King, White & Shaw:

Gentlemen:—'n r ply to your inquiry as to my opinion of Whann's "aw Bone Super-Phosphate, I unhesitatingly say that by comparison with other fertilizers during the last three years, I am satisfied that Whann's has turned out better crops for me than any other, and I expect to continue to use it.

Yours truly,

JOHN E. THOMAS. HILLSBORO, N. C. Mears. Williamson, Upchurch & Thomas, Raleigh, N. C.:

Bear Sirs:—At the Orphan Asylum in Oxford, a very decided success has attended every application of Whaun's Raw Bone Super-Phosphate. The land was poor, and the station dry, but the cross surpass dour ex ectations. Such a fattilizer will work its own way, because those who have used it once will want it again.

J. H. MILLS, Supt.

Messrs. King, White & Shaw:
Dear Sirs:—This is to certify that we have used Whann's Raw Bone Super-Phosphate the past season, and are as well pleased with it as any we have ever used—that is on cotton, we did not use it on anything else.

Yours very respectfully,

J. J. THOMAS.

WHANN'S RAW BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE

is no new or untried menure. It has been before the public for upwards of ten years, during which time it has been steadily growing a reputation, until it is now universally recognized as one of the most uniformly reliable concentrated fertilizers in the market. It is manufactured from the best and purest raw materials, every one of which is subjected to chemical analysis before being used. The purity of the fertilizer is thus assured. In addition to this, every step of its manufacture is conducted under the strictest chemical supervision, so that farmers are thus guarded at every point from any danger of using an inferior article. On WHANN'S PHOSPHATE has produced the most gratifying results, in many instance for exceeding the most sanguine hopes of those who have used it.

We offer this renowned fertilizer for the coming season, assuring our friends that the man high standard which has always characterized it shall be rigidly maintained.

DAILY AND WEEKLY FOR 1875. The approach of the Presidential election gives unusual importance to the events and developments of 1875. We shall endeavor to describe them fully, faithuily, and fearly seathers.

THE WEEKLY UN will continue to be

This Vertical Engine occupies less room, is stronger and more simple than any other, and perfectly safe in the hands of persons of ordinary intelligence, without the previous training as Engineers. Our tic is increasing, and the WEEKLY is their raper especialty. It belongs to mo party, and obeys no dictation, contending for principle, and for the election of the best men. It exposes the corruption that disgraces the country and threatens the overthrow of republican institutions. It has no fear of knawes, and seeks no favors from their supporters.

ions are regularly reported in its columns. The price of the WEEKLY SUN is one dollar a year for a sheet of eight pages, and fif y-six columns. As this barely pays the expenses of paper and printing, we are not acte to make any discount or allowany efforts to extend its circulation. Under the new law, which requires payment of postage in advance, one dollar a year, with twenty cents the cost of prepaid postage added is the rate of subscription. NEWSPAPERS. H E S U N

THE WEEKLY SUN has now attained a circulation of over seventy thousand copies. Its readers are found in every State and Territory, and its quality is well known to the public. We shall not only endeavor to kee; it fully up to the old standard, but to in:prove and add to its variety and power.

THEY WERKLY UN will continue to be a thorough new paper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always, we trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instructive manner. It is our aim to make the WhEKLY SUN, the best family newspaper in the word. It will be full of entertaining and appropriate reading of every sort, but will print nothing to effend the most scrapulous and delicate taste. It will always contain the most interesting stories and romances of the day, circfully selected and legibly printed.

The Agricultural Department is a prominent feature in the WEEKLY SUN, and its articles will always be found fresh and useful to the farmer.

The number of men independent in politic is increasing, and the WEEKLY SUN.

Foreign Matters. New York, January 11th.—The Herald's special from London says Don Carlos has issued a proclamation dated headquarters Vera, January 6, in which he declares himself as head of the Spanish Bourbons. He contemplates, with profound sorrow, the attitude of his Cousin Alfonzo, whose attitude of his Cousin Affonzo, whose inexperience has led him to consent to being the instrument of the same persons who expelled him and his mother, notwithstanding he makes no protest. The dignity of himself and army is the only protest he can offer. He avers he will remain faithful to his holy mission and keep the flag unstained. London, Jan. 12.—The Times has reason to believe that Bismarck has intimated to Spain that the German government will defer the recogni-tion of King Alfonzo until the decree suspending two Protestant newspa-pers and closing the Protestant chapel in Cadis, is repealed.

The Special Message of Governor Tilden to the Legislature of New York,

ALBANY, N. Y., January 12.— Governor Tilden has sent a special message to the Legislature, calling attention to the Louisiana affair, and Senator Lord offered concurrent res-olutions condemning all persons resconsible for the interference with the Legislature. The resolutions were laid on the table on motion of Mr. Woodin, who said it would be wise to await the report of the Louisians Investigating Committee.

Expressions of Sympathy for the Louisiana People. HARRISOURG, Jan. 12th.—After a spirited debate resolutions were adopted conmencing "after unparallelled usurpation." The Civil Rights Bill-The Louisia. The Civil Rights Bill—The Louisia-na Question Discussed in the Sen-ate—Gordon Again defending the south—Bayard tharges the Repub-lican Party with Trampling Upon the Constitution.

FROM WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.-House-Some filibustering in the House today defeated the action upon the Civil Rights bill. There was nothing interesting to Adjourned.

The Senate had up to-day the resolution of Schurz instruction the Judiciary Committee to inquire what legislation by Congress is necessary to secure to the people of Louisiana their rights of self-govenment under the Constitution, and report with the least possible delay by bill or other-Howe, of Wisconsin, criticized Schorz's speech of yesterday, and denied that the army of the United States had removed from the Louisiana Legislature any members of that body. He defended the course of General Sheridan, and said he was not in command of New Orleans when the events of Monday, January th, took place. In referring to the speech of Gordon, he said the Republican party did not hate any portion of this country, and all the laws made for the South were also made for the for the South were also made for the North, and the Republican party had poured out treasure of country as freely to open the channels of the Southern ports as it had to open the channels of any Northern one. He thought, murder, was too common in the South, and was regarded there with much less abhorrence than in other parties of the country. other portions of the country. Mar-der and other species of violence had been employed in the South for polibeen employed in the South for political purposes. He spoke of the Red River troubles in Louisiana, and said the perpetrations of those crimes went unpunished.

Gordon, of Georgia, said the Republicans were in charge of the State, and had the judiciary there, and if a majority of the people supported the Kallage people supported the Kellogg Government as was claimed by Senators on the other side of the chamators on the other side of the chamber, how was it that the Courts of that State, aided by the army of the United States, did not bring the perpetrators of these crimes tuntuped Howe replied that have assembled to justice, into that are assembled to justice. Into that are assembled to be used of his information, the Courts of that State were weak.

that State were weak. Gordon said that the Senator, by implication if not by direct words, charged that murders were committed in Red River parish, and if it be true, it was a most remarkable fact that the Attorney for Louisiana, who belonged to the same party as the Senator, did not prosecute the criminals. The Senator had said that the Courts were weak; if the Attorney had not the brains or nerve to draw up a bill of indictment, the Democratic party was certainly not responsible. (Applause in the gal-

Howe said no matter what the Senator might think of personal qualifications of the Attorney for Louisiana, that he, Howe, would say that if the Democratic party of Louisiana would say to Gov. Kelof Louisiana would say to Gov. Kellogg that they would sustain him in every effort to put down murder, no such transactions as took place in every effort to put down murder, no such transactions as took place in Red River Parish would ever take place again. He believed that if a half dozen Senators on the Democratic side of the chamber would tell the people of the South that they would not tolerate these offenses, there would be no more of them.

Morton said it was well understood in Red River Parish with witnesses who testify against these criminals that grand jurors who were disposed to indict, or petty jurors who were disposed to indict, or petty jurors who were disposed to convict them, would be murdered, and that was the reason why these criminals in Louisiana

why these criminals in Louisiana and not been punished. Howe resuming his argument, said that Demerats were not the friends of the colored men; that party was united upon one subject and that was hostility to the negro. In defending the course of Gen. Sheridan, he said that the Senator from Delaware, Bayard, did him injustice in his recent speech. What offence had Gen. Sheridan committed he had suggested for a most extraordinary state of things; an extraordinary remedy. He (Howe) thought that the Senator from Delaware, instead of heaping condemnation upon the head of Sheridan, should have spent a little of his energy in the condemnation of the outrages which Sheridan denounced. He (Howe) did not think Senators should be very harsh in censuring the conduct of Gen. Sheridan. That officer did not say all citizens of New Orleans banditti, and as to the disposiwere tion in that city to override all law referred to by Sheridan, Congress eould see for itself that it was so.

COMMISSION NERGHAMPS

Bayard read Sheridan's dispatch in reference to banditti, and said it was an arraignment of the whole community of New Orleans. Personally, he had scarcely an acquaintance with Gen. Sheridan, and no desire to detract from his merits as a soldier, but it seemed to him, Bayard, almost incredible that a Senator so advanced in years and so amiable as the Senator from Wisconsin, should stand here to find fault with him for stating that the conduct of Sheridan in New Orleans was that of human ferocity. The Senator, outside of this Chamber, would find but one sentiment in regard to that dis-patch. Did he not ask the President of the United States to issue a pro-clamation. He had no more right to issue a bull in the name of the peo

Howe said, but Sheridan did not ask the President to issue such a proclamation, he only suggested that auch a proclamation be issued. Gen. Sheridan stood there in the presence of murder, he felt keenly and spoke strongly, he suggested a ren which the law would not warrant he, Hoare, did not regard that as an evidence of human ferocity, especially in one raised as a soldier Did the Senator from Delaware, Bayard, believe that there was a Senator in this Chamber, especially on the Republican side, who would consent to the slightest infraction of our Constitution? Did he believe that the Republican party wanted to substitute a despotism for a Constitutional Government?

Bayard said he could scarcely believe that the Senator asked him that question seriously. He did be-lieve that the Republican party had trampled upon the Constitution till there was scarcely a vestige of it left. He had seen effort after effort to break it down till he believed, as he believe ! in his existence, that the party raid no respect to it. Howe denied that the Republican party wanted any despotism, and said, "the Senator says we have trampled upon the Constitution." That is his opinion, and fortunately his opinion nor mine does not control the country. In conclusion, he argued that the Democrats in 1854 employed a detachment of the army in Boston to take a negro out of that city. It had been said here that the people are prepairing to overthrow that party which has conducted the government from 1861 down to the present day. It might come, he was not insensible, to it, but he could not consent to turn back as admonished by the Senator from Missouri, Schurz, yesterday. He was not constituted on the craw-fish order. There might be storms ahead, and it might be prudent for those not fully insured, to go ashore, but he was going to complete the voyage, and if the ship went down before the voyage was completed, he would go down with it, and if it should ever be raised again, as it must be, for the great underwriter, would attend to that. There would be found at the mast-head her flag, upon which might be read "that all men, whatever their race or color might be had equal rights to the pursuit of life, liberty and happiness." Logan speaks to-morrow. Confirmations—Mallory, Collector of the Fouth Texas District; Shuttleworth; Postmoster at Clarksburg, West Virginia The Bar of the Supreme Court passed resolutions of respect to Louis Janin, of Louisiana, lately deceased. The Alabama Committee has arrived. They will examine Hays, Sheets and Pelham, and then make their report.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., June 12, 1874. CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., June 12, 1874.

Dear Sir;—I have used the Xanthine for one year, and find it answers the purpose it is prepared for. I had used other preparations for the same purpose, viz: the restoration of the hair to the natural color; but was compeled to abandon them because they affected my system, gave me rheuma isme and neurolgia. Xanthine, however, has not had this effect; on the contrary, has been beneficial in this respect. Hoping that you may be successful in its sale,
